

Adelina Miceli

Associate

amiceli@rc.com

Hartford — 860.275.8332

Adelina Miceli assists with intellectual property and technology litigation and transactional matters. She is experienced in trademark-related matters, including clearance searches, application filings, and responses to United States Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) actions involving pending and registered trademarks.

Adelina also provides support for intellectual property and technology agreements, including licensing, software as a service (SaaS), data licenses, and various other contracts that include intellectual property and technology components.

Adelina served as a term law clerk to the Honorable Hope C. Seeley of the Connecticut Appellate Court. She also worked as a paralegal and law clerk at a Northeast law firm, supporting professional malpractice, employment, and other litigation.

Services

- Intellectual Property + Technology

Education

- University of Connecticut School of Law (Juris Doctor, with honors)
 - Intellectual Property Certificate
 - Student Associate, Intellectual Property Clinic
 - The Distinguished Alumni Professor Kent Newmeyer Award in American Legal History
- Emerson College (Bachelors, cum laude)
 - B.A., Writing, Literature, and Publishing

Admissions

- State of Connecticut