Anthony J. Vogel focuses his practice on commercial real estate transactions, including leasing, acquisitions and dispositions and financing transactions. He is a partner in our firm's Real Estate + Development group, and is resident in our firm's Stamford and New York City offices.

Leasing

Anthony represents landlords and tenants in complex commercial lease negotiations for office, medical office, industrial and retail space throughout the country.

Acquisitions + Dispositions

Anthony assists clients in buying and selling commercial real estate across the United States, including office, multi-family, retail, industrial, hotel and mixed-use properties.

Development

Anthony advises developers and municipalities in connection with mixed-use commercial real estate development projects.

Financing

Anthony assists clients with real estate financings, including the structuring and negotiation of mortgage, mezzanine and construction loans. He has experience representing both borrowers and lenders.

Prior to joining Robinson+Cole, Anthony was an associate in the New York City office of a 450-attorney firm, where he represented clients in commercial leasing, acquisition and disposition and financing transactions.
