New York — 332.334.5181

Carleigh E. Stiehm-Wenik helps corporate and municipal clients address civil litigation matters, including breach-of-contract claims and business tort claims involving fraud, misrepresentation, and unfair and deceptive trade practices.

Carleigh has managed cases from inception through resolution, conducting legal research and drafting pleadings, discovery responses, motion papers, and appellate briefs in state and federal courts. She has represented clients at mediations and settlement conferences, assisted in preparing to take and defend depositions, and collaborated with partners to develop litigation and settlement strategies.

Before joining Robinson+Cole, Carleigh previously clerked for the Honorable Judith C. McCarthy in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of New York. Her judicial experience also includes service as a Law Clerk to the Honorable Christine M. Vanek of the Superior Court of New Jersey, Appellate Division, and judicial internships with the Honorable Jack M. Sabatino, temporarily assigned to the Supreme Court of New Jersey, and the Honorable Michael A. Hammer of the U.S. District Court for the District of New Jersey.
