New York — 212.451.2996

Chenyi Wang focuses her practice on capital markets, securities law, and corporate transactions. She routinely advises domestic and international issuers, underwriters, and investors on initial public offerings, follow-on offerings, private placements, and regulatory compliance.

With extensive experience in both the U.S. and China, Chenyi has worked on public offerings and listings on U.S exchanges and the Hong Kong Stock Exchange, as well as merger and acquisitions, private equity, venture capital financings, and general corporate governance matters.

Prior to joining our firm, Chenyi worked for an international law firm in Shanghai, China, as well as reputable law firms in New York City. As a native Mandarin speaker, her bilingual capabilities and international background allow her to provide strategic guidance to clients navigating cross-border investments and regulatory frameworks.
