New York — 212.451.2967

Gabriella Blum concentrates her practice on the insurance industry's financial lines sector. Gabriella assists clients in a range of complex coverage disputes, including preparing coverage opinions for insurance carriers, analyzing legal issues and potential outcomes, and participating in mediations. She also has worked with defense counsel in developing litigation strategies on complex matters.

Gabriella serves clients' interests and business objectives by collaborating with colleagues in our diverse practice groups, including Insurance + Reinsurance, Business Transactions, and Litigation.

In law school, Gabriella served as a judicial intern for the Honorable Mary Kay Vyskocil of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York. Additionally, Gabriella was the Executive Director of the St. John's Moot Court Honor Society and earned awards for her oral advocacy in several Moot Court competitions.

Gabriella is fluent in Greek.
