Boston — 617.557.5994

Jonathan L. Cabot focuses his practice primarily on mergers and acquisitions and general corporate matters, representing clients that operate across a variety of industries including technology, software, health tech and health services, fashion, gaming, and entertainment and manufacturing.

Mergers + Acquisitions

Jon represents public and private companies, private equity sponsors, and principal owners and investors through all stages of the M&A process. A significant portion of Jon's practice involves counseling buy-side and sell-side clients through cross-border transactions, assisting both EU and UK strategics in their pursuit of US-based targets and domestic sell-side clients with their sale or disposition to non-US buyers.

General Corporate Matters

Jon also regularly counsels clients on general corporate matters, including corporate governance, entity formation, industry specific regulatory compliance, and commercial transactions.

During law school, he interned with the Honorable John J. McConnell, Jr., of the United States District Court for the District of Rhode Island. He also spent a year externing with an internationally operated and publicly traded gaming technology company, where he worked on cross-border commercial transactions and strategic acquisitions. After law school, Jonathan clerked in the Rhode Island Supreme Court Law Clerk Department.
