Jonathan R. Vasquez works on mergers and acquisitions, securities offerings and other capital markets transactions, and a broad range of general corporate matters. He has experience working with public and private companies, private equity funds, family-owned businesses, startups, and emerging companies. Jon is a member of our Business Transactions group.

Prior to joining our firm, Jonathan was a legal intern at a major international technologies company researching and writing on the Office of Foreign Assets Control's enforcement history related to blocked transactions, and a sales consultant at a professional organization specializing in small and medium-sized businesses. In such roles, he established and maintained relationships with C-level executives at small-to-midsize venture capital- and private equity-backed technology companies. He also worked as an associate director at a firm specializing in international expansion.
