Hartford — 860.275.6459

Julia F. Fountain specializes in the representation of property, casualty and financial lines insurers in complex coverage disputes and coverage litigation. Prior to joining our firm, Julia held two judicial internships – one in the District Court for the District of Columbia for Judge Rudolph Contreras, and the other in the District Court for the District of Connecticut for Judge Alfred V. Covello – during which she researched and drafted bench memoranda and draft opinions. Her litigation experience also includes disputes related to enforcement of federal and state environmental statutes, as well as representing clients in connection with business disputes. Julia has experience in all stages of the litigation process, from taking depositions to trial.

Julia is a graduate of the Georgetown University Law Center. During law school, she worked as a student attorney for the Institute for Public Representation's Environmental Law Clinic, where she researched and authored memoranda concerning the Food and Drug Administration's regulatory framework for food production and drafted comments regarding the Environmental Protection Agency's authority to promulgate rules regulating scientific information. She also was active in the Women's Legal Alliance and the Environmental Law Society.

Julia's interests include international travel, wildlife protection, and musical theatre.
