Bankruptcy + Creditors' Rights

Katherine M. Fix concentrates her practice on bankruptcy and corporate restructuring matters. This encompasses representations of companies and creditors in Chapter 11 reorganizations, including special situations that require both transactional and litigation proficiency. Her experience includes both debtor and creditor representations of committees, corporate entities, and individuals across a variety of industries, including the energy, maritime, retail, and manufacturing industries. Katherine has particular familiarity representing clients in contested matters and adversary proceedings.

Business Litigation

Katherine has a broad range of experience handling litigation matters in federal courts, including preferential and fraudulent transfers, declaratory judgments and injunctive relief, and breach of fiduciary duty actions.
