Katherine R. Skonberg represents publicly and privately held companies across various areas of corporate and transactional law, including mergers and acquisitions, commercial finance transactions, private equity, and general corporate matters. She is a member of our firm's Business Transactions group.

Mergers + Acquisitions

Katherine regularly represents clients in all aspects of corporate transactions, including buyers and sellers in mergers and acquisitions, divestitures, and other strategic transactions. She has experience across a wide array of industries, allowing her to better serve clients of all sizes.

Commercial + Corporate Financing

Katherine has experience representing borrowers, banks, funds and other lenders, providing a unique perspective on how to structure financing documents to best help her clients. Her experience includes acquisition financing, asset-based financing, and mortgage financing.

General Corporate Matters

Katherine has worked with a variety of clients on general corporate matters, including entity formation, corporate governance, commercial contracting, debt and equity financing, transactions involving real estate, and other general corporate concerns.

Prior to joining Robinson+Cole she served as a Senior Legal Technology Solutions consultant for a consulting firm in Washington, D.C. Her experience there included managing a $5billion cross-country acquisition project that involved the Federal Trade Commission and the Canadian Competition Bureau. Katherine also collaborated with U.S. and U.K. law firms in managing the review of an investigation into price fixing.
