

Kathy Nguyen

Assistant Government Relations Specialist

knguyen@rc.com

Hartford — 860.541.4925

Kathy Nguyen covers legislative committee meetings, public hearings and state agency meetings, as well as House and Senate sessions, reporting on relevant activity to clients and the field team for the Connecticut Government Relations Group of Robinson+Cole (CTGRG-RC). She coordinates client testimony submissions for legislative public hearings and disseminates to the Group all proposed legislation of interest, legislative committee public hearing notices, and legislative transcripts of House and Senate floor debates on key legislation.

Kathy has developed multiple databases for clients in support of their legislative or municipal outreach and maintains client email distribution lists. She also reviews media outlets and social media sites of interest for relevant articles for distribution to these lists.

Kathy maintains a consistent social media presence for CTGRG-RC, promoting its client news, events, and announcements. She monitors the Connecticut Network (CT-N) and Connecticut General Assembly (CGA) websites daily, directing the field team to relevant emergent meetings and press conferences.

Kathy is fluent in English and has professional proficiency in Vietnamese.
