Madeleine M. Newman represents developers in the Northeast with a focus on affordable housing projects that leverage federal and state tax credits, tax-exempt bond financing, state and local funding, and equity investment. She also works on a variety of commercial real estate transactions, including the acquisition and disposition of commercial real estate.

Madeleine also counsels developers, landowners, businesses, and other organizations on local, state, and national land use regulations, and represents them in permitting for development projects. Her previous experience include serving as a judicial intern for the Hon. Robert Foster of the Massachusetts Land Court in Boston and conducting research for the Real Estate Bar Association of Massachusetts (REBA) for which she continues to be an active member of. She is a member of our firm's Real Estate + Development group.
