

Victor Carlo Carreno

Associate

vcarlo@rc.com

Washington, DC — 771.772.9634

Victor Carlo Carreno's practice encompasses a wide range of tax-exempt and taxable bond and loan financings, and structured debt financing transactions.

Before joining our firm, Victor gained experience in municipal bond financings, focused on affordable multifamily housing and single-family housing, as well as financing health care, education, and other facilities.

His background includes serving as a risk analyst for the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board and working as an immigration and contracts attorney.

As an immigration attorney, he prepared employment and investment-based visa applications for foreign nationals and businesses entering the U.S. market. He has also supported litigation teams representing plaintiffs in securities arbitration cases.

Services

- Finance
- Public Finance
- Affordable Housing + Finance

Education

- George Washington University Law School (Juris Doctor)
 - Merit Scholar
- Johns Hopkins University (Masters)
 - M.S., Applied Economics
- College of William & Mary (Bachelors)
 - B.S., Economics and Mathematics

Admissions

- District of Columbia